

RONNIE McCoy

OBJECTIVE:

Provide clients and their employees effective and functional Occupational Safety, Health & Environmental Training consultation. Focus on proactive protection at the "Point of Risk" through functional and effective processes, policy, procedures and good practices.

EDUCATION & ACHIEVEMENTS:

- OSHA 501 Train the Trainer Course for General Industry #U05614510
University of California, San Diego
- HAZWOPER 40 Hours –
Westec College- Shafter CA
- Safety & Health Practitioner Certificate Program (Enrolled)
Safety Consultation and Training Section-(SCATS) Henderson, Nevada
- Bachelor's Degree in General Studies, (Emphasis Business/Marketing),
The University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa
- Military Science Degree, ROTC,
The University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa

CAPABILITIES:

- Establish a safety presence in the field on a daily basis multiple location.
- Daily observations of worksites hazards and to identify opportunities that need improvement.
- Communicate the importance of developing the Job Safety Analysis (JSA) to identify hazards and mitigation's for tasks being performed.
- Facilitate Chevrons and Salinas Energy site orientations for new arrivals to the lease's San Ardo, CA
- Conduct level 3 facility safety audits.
- Attend and participate in Business Partners tailgate safety meetings.
- Assist in facilitating in weekly maintenance and construction town hall meetings.
- Participate in Chevron Safety Committee meetings.
- Coach the workforce on use of the Operational Excellence Principles and Tenants on all tasks being performed.
- Encourage the near miss reporting process to all Business partners.

WORK HISTORY:

McKee Electric Company 2007- 2009
San Ardo, CA.

Job Title: Field Safety Specialist

Responsibilities: Provided a safety presence on Chevron and Salinas Energy Leases.

Insurance Risk Management 1989- 2007
Oklahoma City, OK & Las Vegas, NV

Job Title: Risk Management Representative -

Responsibilities: Helped individuals to mitigate negative consequences resulting from threats and uncertainties related to personal finance and how to minimize those risks.

United States Army Reserves 1989 -1993
95th Regiment headquarters, Des Moines, IA

Job Title: Nuclear, Biological and Chemical (NBC) Specialist.

Responsibilities & Duties: Commanding and controlling Chemical operations and combined armed forces for combat and peacetime. Coordinated Safety deployment and NBC readiness of Soldiers from the platoon level to battalion.

ACHIEVEMENTS:

- OSHA 501 Trainer Course for General Industry #U05614510
- HAZWOPER 40 Hours - Westec College- Shafter CA Federal & California State Standards
- OSHA 30 Construction Outreach Program SCATS of Nevada
- OSHA 10 General Industry Outreach Program SCATS of Nevada
- ERT Medical Team First Responder- San Ardo, CA
- Electrical Safety in the Workplace NFPA70E
- Certified SIM (Safety In Motion) Trainer
- USAR Safety NBC Defense Officer Course

PERSONAL INTEREST: Daughters, church, golfing and cooking

REFERENCES: Available upon request.

900 E. Desert Inn Rd. Suite 225, Las Vegas, NV 89109
PH: 702.437.3222 email: ronnie.mccoy1@gmail.com